Feast of (King) Alfred the Great, 899

Dear Friends in Christ,

King Alfred the Great is a bit of a paradox. He was a warrior King who defeated the invading Danes, united Anglo-Saxon England and converted his foes to Christianity. Lest that sound as if Alfred offered the Vikings and Danes the choice of death or Christ, he usually used argument and persuasion to win souls to Christ.

He was the youngest of five sons of King Aethelwulf, King of the West Saxons (Wessex). Alfred reigned for 28 years after the deaths of three of his older brothers who each ruled in succession after his father's death. Through battles, strategies and diplomacy Alfred united the southern and midland regions of England—quite an accomplishment in the 9th century. Then he turned his attention to bringing in scholars from Wales and the Continent to teach parish clergy and provide translations of theology and history.

The chaotic state of the seven Anglo-Saxon kingdoms of England and the threat of Viking and Danes invasions of the 9th century might have led any king to be insular, miserly and pessimistic. But Alfred saw the possibilities of peace, economic growth, the arts and learning in unifying the southern and midland regions of England. He also saw the power a unified Anglo-Saxon England would have in repulsing the Danes and Vikings. For all of the above King Alfred of Wessex is remembered as “Great” and commemorated as a saint.

King Alfred lived and reigned based in the theology of abundance with thanksgiving. In modern parlance one might say that Alfred saw the world as a glass half-full and shared that glass with the world. He's a role model for the theology of abundance and stewardship that even can be applied to our 21st century world. In the year 2012 it's easy to look around and see only division, scarce resources and little hope. However every weekend at our celebrations of Holy Eucharist we proclaim, “Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.” By doing so we express Christian hope. By doing so we confess that we follow Christ by our words and deeds. It's a three-phrase sound-bite of our Baptismal Covenant. Let's take King Alfred the Great as an example of following Christ and living into abundance, thanksgiving and stewardship.

Faithfully,

The Rev. Christine J. Day
Rector

Christmas Angels Needed! Christmas Angels Needed!

Once again, All Saints' will be joining with Calvary's Love Church and helping to provide Johnson City school children with Christmas presents this year. On November 10th Judy Horton will pick up the names and suggestions from Calvary Love. Then look in the Library for the "Stockings" with children's "names" pinned on them. Choose one, two or many names, unpin them and write down on the sheet which one(s) you have selected. This year there may be slightly different instructions, so make sure you pick-up a set of those instructions when you make your choice. Need more information, see Judy Horton before November 17th when she makes her trip down south or Linda Barkman or Barbara Freed.

Jail Ministry Request from our Deacon

The Council of Churches, Jail Ministry Clothes Closet is seriously low on sweatsuits for men and women who are being released from jail. You have been very generous in the past, and I ask if you could make an appeal to your congregations for help once again. I will pick up any sweatsuits you are given. Please make sure they are marked as Sweatsuits for Jail Ministry. The most popular sizes tend to large and extra-large. Very gently used sweat suits are okay too. The people who receive these are always very appreciative. I am very grateful on behalf of the persons going back home after jail for your kindness and gifts to them. Thanks for all you do to help in this ministry!

Love to all,
Deacon Dorothy

“COMMITMENT”

As I sit down to write my Stewardship Thought, I think back to 1918 when my grandfather and grandmother, Sam and Florence Lewis, along with a group of other men and women, decided to make the COMMITMENT to organize our parish known as All Saints' Episcopal Church.

There have been many changes over the years, but the one thing that never changed was the COMMITMENT of the people who made up our congregation. All Saints' has always had a core group of people who were willing to roll up their sleeves and do what was needed to support the parish with their Time, Talent and Treasure.

Throughout the nearly 50 years that Dave and I have been married, we've felt loved and supported by everyone in our church. When we were first married we tried other churches around the area, but when our daughter was 5 years old we decided that All Saints' was the parish for us. At that time, we made a COMMITMENT that we would support All Saints' to the best of our ability. In the early days it was a struggle, but we kept at it. We found out the biggest hurdle was just making up our minds that we were going to do it. It is not the dollar amount that you pledge or the amount of time you donate, rather it is just the fact that you put forth the effort to make and keep regular COMMITMENTS.

You will find that donating time results in gaining strength and support to face the trials that we all face. You are not alone and should never feel it is wrong to ask for help. God has given each of us different talents, so if someone asks you to volunteer for something, please consider saying "Yes". You will receive much more than you give as you work along side of other members of our church. A parish family is no different from any other family. It takes the help and COMMITMENT of everyone to succeed. Also, please take time to pray for guidance before making a pledge of your Time, your Talent, and your Treasure.

If you have any questions about pledging, please feel free to speak to Mother Chris or anyone on the Vestry. Remember, everyone at All Saints' is important! Love and Peace, Judy Horton

November 18th
Pentecost 25

All Saints' Stewardship Committee presents a special version of the good old story "Stone Soup" during the worship services on Saturday, November 10, at 5 pm and Sunday, November 11, at 10 am.

Our very own Lonna and David Pierce will use their God-given Talents to offer what promises to be a fun, inspirational, and tasty story for people of all ages.

Invite your family and friends to join us at All Saints'. Our doors are open to everyone.

CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP...

is a way of living in which we recognize that Everything we have belongs to God and is a trust from God to be used in His Service and His Glory.

On or about November 5th the annual All Saints' Stewardship letters and pledge cards will be mailed to our church members and friends.

November 18th has been designated as Stewardship Commitment Sunday. On that day we bring our completed pledge cards with us to church to place in the alms basin during the offertory.

The results of our generosity in the three areas of Time, Talent and Treasure are, without a doubt, very important and necessary to maintain the daily life and continue the ministry of All Saints' church during 2013.

That being said, making a pledge commitment and working throughout the year to keep that commitment is important to us as individuals. Why? Because deep down inside each of us is a real need to repay our God for Everything he has given us. Sharing with others through All Saints' helps us fulfill that need.

During the coming days, will you please take time to contemplate, pray, and plan ahead so that when the special mailing comes to your home, you will be ready to commit to a pledge that will be both meaningful for you and sustaining for the vital work of All Saints'.

Parish Reminders

Book Club to Meet the 4th Wednesday of the Month at 5:30 PM

at the Rectory: November 28th

The Book Club will meet next on Wednesday, November 28, 2012 at 5:30 PM at the rectory. We'll be finishing P.D. James' Original Sin, which was made into a series on the BBC. The publisher gives the following synopsis:

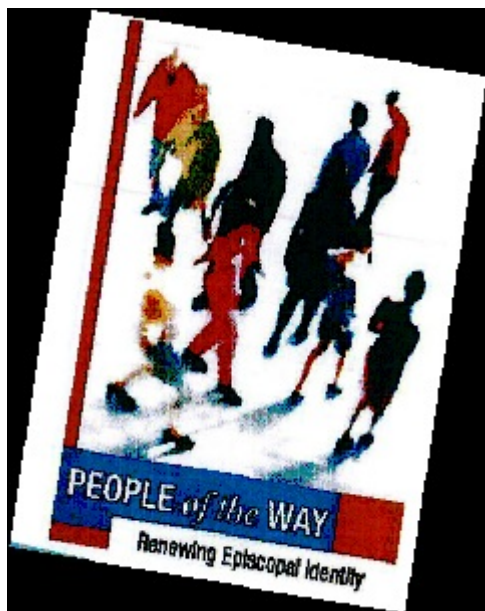

“Innocent House is a mock-Venetian palace occupied by Britain's oldest book publisher, Peverell Press. After a spate of malicious pranks, the ruthless managing director, Gerard Etienne, is found dead, the office mascot, a stuffed snake, jammed in his mouth. Who wanted Etienne dead? Just about everyone on staff -- and several authors, too.

“Commander Adam Dalgliesh and his team are confronted with a puzzle of extraordinary ingenuity as they begin to probe the dark, private tragedies of Etienne's mistress and colleagues. But the mystery at Innocent House may prove too deep, too old, and too evil to stop at just one death....”

The cost of the book is $14.02. Interested in joining Book Club? Speak to Mother Day and then pick up a copy of the books!
