Feast of Bishop Remigius of Rheims, 530

Dear Friends in Christ,

Have you tasted an apple this fall? They are incredible! Honeycrisp, Cortland, Empire or Paula Red—the list goes on—all different and all sumptuous! And all are signs of God's abundance. Too often it's too easy to slip into an atmosphere of scarcity. The news headlines in all media encourage us to think only of our safety, our wealth and our own resources. TV and radio commercials and shows persuade us to buy more, consume more and accumulate more. The pop-up ads on the internet convince us that the newest electronic device or car is a necessity.

But that is not what this year's crop of apples proclaims. While the heavens may tell of the glory of God, the overflowing bushel baskets of apples tell of the bountiful love and providence of God. Think about it. No one person, household or even neighborhood could possibly consume all the apples in the orchards this fall. No these apples must be shared. Eaten just as they are; cooked into pies and streusels; made into apple sauce, cakes and bread; pressed for juice and ciders; and then given away to family, friends, neighbors and others. The above sharing of the abundant apple crop is one way of proclaiming the Good News of God in Christ. But the apple, itself is not the whole story—albeit and outward sign of God's grace. Consider this hymn, written in the 18th century by an unknown New Englander:

The tree of life my soul hath seen,
Laden with fruit, and always green;
The trees of nature fruitless be,
Compar'd with Christ the Appletree.

This beauty doth all things excel,
By faith I know, but ne'er can tell
The glory which I now can see,
In Jesus Christ the Appletree.

For happiness I long have sought,
And pleasure dearly I have bought;
I miss'd of all; but now I see
'Tis found in Christ the Appletree.

I'm weary'd with my former toil—
Here I will sit and rest awhile,
Under the shadow I will be,
Of Jesus Christ the Appletree.

With great delight I'll make my stay,
There's none shall fright my soul away;
Among the sons of men I see
There's none like Christ the Appletree.

I'll sit and eat this fruit divine,
It cheers my heart like spirit'al wine;
And now this fruit is sweet to me,
That grows on Christ the Appletree.

This fruit doth make my soul to thrive,
It keeps my dying faith alive;
Which makes my soul in haste to be
With Jesus Christ the Appletree.<sup>1</sup>

This October, as we consider annual stewardship, commitments and dreams, let us be mindful of the lessons of this year's abundant crop of apples and Jesus Christ the Appletree!

Faithfully,

Rector

Names, Names, Names for All Saints' Sunday

November 2nd and 3rd are the Vigil and Feast Day for All Saints' — our parish's "patronal feast". As we celebrate our patronal feast at the Saturday 5 PM Holy Eucharist and the Sunday 10 AM Holy Eucharist it is customary to renew our Baptismal Covenant and remember All Saints'— those loved ones who have died. If you would like the name of a loved family member or friend to be remembered and read during the service, please write the name(s) on the form provided at the Memorial Desk in our narthex by October 25th. If convenient, e-mail the information to AllSaintsJCNY@aol.com.

St. Francis Day to be Celebrated October 12th and 13th

Come celebrate St. Francis Day with us and bring your pets for the Blessing of Animals at the Saturday, October 12th and Sunday, October 13th celebrations of Holy Eucharist. St. Francis (October 4th) is the patron saint of all animals. We hope that you will bring your pet to church to receive a blessing in a brief liturgy following the post communion prayer. (This will enable one to bolt out and retrieve "Rover" from the car or classroom if you are keeping "Rover" elsewhere during the service.) Please have all dogs on leads and exercised before the service. Cats and other small creatures tend to be happier in carriers or crates, or you can just bring a photograph of your pet. As the song says, "All God's creatures have a place in the choir!"

News Update!

Our Cub Scout families have been busily cleaning the lower level classrooms to turn them into Den Meeting Rooms. Many years of clutter are in the process of being cleared. The old choir room space is also undergoing a cleaning and clearing [and the Junior League has taken over old choir robe closets to store their special events materials]. Our Girl Scout Troop will meet two Sunday afternoons a month. All meetings with times can be found on the newsletter calendar!

Support Cub Scout Pack 100 & Boy Scout Troop 110 by Buying Trail's End Popcorn!

To fund their activities, All Saints' Cub and Boy Scouts are selling Trail's End Popcorn. 70% of each purchase goes back to local Scouting to fund programs and camping activities for the Scouts. Place your order on the sign-up sheet in the Narthex!

The Annual Breast Cancer Walk

What do these names all have in common? Susan Pierce Nickerson, Joan Drumm, Barb Freed, Debbie Lake, Ida Taft and Sara Harrison Pautard? I know you guessed it. They either survived the fight, are fighting the fight, or sadly lost the fight to some kind of cancer. Since we have started walking as a team 3 more members of our parish have been affected by this horrible disease. The walker donation and registration form along with some other papers to help you raise money to help find a cure for Cancer can be found in the narthex. This years walk is being held SATURDAY, OCTOBER 19, 2013 at 10 AM, registration opening at 8:30AM at Recreation Park in Binghamton. Please join me once again to not only talk the talk but walk the walk to finding a cure for this heart sinking disease. If you have any questions please feel free to contact me Corrine Rea at 607-242-9858 or my email Yarningforyoubycj@aol.com. I look forward to walking in this years walk with even more people then in years past.

31st Annual CHOW Hunger Walk

The 31st Annual CHOW Hunger Walk will be on Sunday, October 20 at Binghamton University. Registration begins at 1pm behind the East Gym. The start time for the walk is 2pm. This year, more than ever, we need to have successful walk to continue our mission of feeding the hungry in Broome County. Walker envelopes [as soon as received from CHOW] can be found on a clip board under the CHOW Poster at our main entrance bulletin board.

Work Party Scheduled for Rectory

There will be a church work party at the rectory on Saturday, October 5, from 9 am to 2 pm. We will be installing Ground Fault Interrupts(GFI) outside as well as work on the mud/laundry room inside. General cleanup of the grounds will be done. If the weather permits, we will prepare and paint the front porch. The garage also needs work if we have sufficient help. Please contact Matt Labosky, Scott Cramer or Gary Zurn with questions.

Maines Fundraiser

Maines Source on Front Street in Binghamton, NY has a fund raising program called Give Back. I am submitting a list of people that might shop at Maines to them who will then receive a special card that is to be shown whenever you shop at Maines and every six months All Saints' will receive a check for 5% of the total amount spent by parishioners. Maines will keep a running total of money spent by All Saints' people. There is no cost to individuals other than the amount spent on groceries that you would be spending anyhow. If you are interested in helping the parish, please give me a call and I will see that you are added to the list for All Saints' Episcopal Church. Judy Horton 607-729-2794

New Curriculum for Children and Youth, *Weaving God's Promises

The Christian Ed fall season has gotten off to a rip-roaring start. The Toddler-11 years-old class meets each Sunday. The children Pre-K-11 years-old leave with their teacher for their classroom during the first hymn of the 10 AM celebration of Holy Eucharist. Toddlers-Pre-K children and parents follow the crucifer after the Gospel to their class. Toddler-11 years-old return to their families for Communion. The lead teacher for this age group is Jeanne Preston assisted by Corrine Rea and Coral Grabowski.

The middle-school youth Christian Ed class is held once a month on the last Sunday of the month. (September 29, October 27, November 24, December 29, etc.) The class begins at 9:45 AM in the Library to meet with the Rector then moves to the Youth Room. Middle-school youth return to their families at the Peace. Joyanne Kasmarcik and Linda Barkman are the Middle-school teachers.

Both the Toddler-11 year-old and the Middle school-age classes are using versions of a new Episcopal curriculum, Weaving God's Promises. Weaving God's Promises class sessions are structured around the Holy Eucharist:

- Gathering: Simple activities focusing the children on the lessons to come;
- Telling the Sacred Story: Telling the biblical story;
- Prayer: Giving thanks to God for God's presence with us;
- Sharing: A time of fellowship and snacks with time for sharing that week's story;
- Sending Forth: Closing prayer send the children and youth back to worship.

There are three years of curriculum. This year is "Weaving Our Faith" which will tell the story of our salvation—from the fall of humankind to our redemption by Jesus Christ—and how we fit into this story. The theme is God loves us and stays with us—no matter what—to bring us back to God's love. It will focus on the Gospel of Matthew, emphasizing the Kingdom of God and our Anglican tradition and faith. There are special lessons for St. Francis' Day, All Saints' Sunday, Christmas, Easter and Pentecost. Each of the two tracks, Toddler-11 year-old and Middle-school, have activities for the various ages and abilities.

Advent and Lent Program to Be Kerygma's *Hallelujah: the Bible and Handel's Messiah

Like to listen to or sing Handel's Messiah? Interested in an Advent or Lent Bible Study? Then look no further! Beginning in Advent and then in Lent, All Saints' will be presenting Kerygma's Hallelujah: the Bible and Handel's Messiah on Sunday mornings and Tuesday evenings* during Lent and Advent.

The course is designed to deepen appreciation of both the words and the music of Handel's Messiah. Because it is primarily a Bible study curriculum, the focus will be naturally on the Bible. Yet it would be a waste of resources to concentrate only on the biblical texts without attention to how they are interpreted in Messiah. You do not need to be an expert in either music or the Bible to enjoy this course. The only real requirements are that one has:

- A genuine interest in learning more about the Bible,
- A desire to appreciate Handel's Messiah more deep,
- A commitment to read and study and to attend the sessions faithfully.

Interested? Sign-up in the Narthex when you see the poster. We need to know how many copies of the Resource Book to order. Copies of the Resource Book (used for both the Advent and Lent sessions) are $17.00 each.

*As the last Tuesday of Advent is Christmas Eve, the last session of the Advent session will Monday December 23rd, probably at the Rectory.

Stewardship News

From Nancy Elwood
“Sharing for October”

Over the last several months, I’ve begun reading “Forward Day by Day” again. For several years I would take the little booklets from the narthex and read it faithfully each day. Like many things in our lives, I had gotten away from this “good habit.”

Being older and of less healthy eyesight, I was happy to stumble upon the large print version of this wonderful publication and have again begun to read it each day.

What does this have to do with Stewardship? – A couple of things. The people that take the time to write the articles are “sharing their time and talent” with their readers. The Episcopal Church is being a good steward by using its “time and treasure” to publish these writings, and All Saints’ is being a good steward by providing some of its “treasure” to purchase the publication for our parishioners.

Additionally, there were two articles this month that especially spoke to me. They were both written by Alissa Goudswaard who is a “...twenty-something Episcopalian...” at St. John’s Episcopal Church in Lafayette, Indiana. The September 28th article is regarding Stewardship, and Alissa makes an important distinction between being a good steward and neglecting self-care. In the September 29th article, she speaks about fear. Lately there seems to be a lot of fear in our parish regarding what the future will hold for our church. If we do not move beyond this fear, it will cripple our ability to live as good stewards and good Christians.

On September 28th, Alissa shared her thoughts on Matthew 6:19-24 – “For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.” Alissa writes, “This is about the time of year when many churches launch annual stewardship campaigns, a reminder of the importance of generosity, financial and otherwise. Not until I began intentionally living in a spirit of generosity did I begin to understand these verses from Matthew. For so long I believed that giving something away meant I would have less – less money, less time, less love. I’ve found, though, that as I loosen my grasp on finite, earthly treasures (my income, my plans for my life, words of praise and affirmation), as I hold these treasures in open hands and lavish them on those around me, I find not less but more and more abundance every day.”

“This is the opposite of neglecting self-care and then burning out; it is not trying to give what I don’t have until I become a bitter and defensive shell. Instead, it is learning how much I already have and how much joy can come to me by reaching out and sharing my gifts. In this way, my treasure and my heart do not stay in a locked and darkened room but expand beyond me and into a vision of the kingdom of heaven.”

The second article that hit home to me was written by Alissa the very next day on September 29th. She was writing on Psalm 91:1-6, 14-16. “You are my refuge and my stronghold, my God in whom I put my trust”... “You shall not be afraid of any terror by night, nor of the arrow that flies by day.” Alissa writes, “Sometimes I think I could be a professional worrier – will I get everything crossed off my to-do-list? What if I forget something?...Responsibility is important, but when I let myself get carried away with these concerns,... my mind buzzes with questions and accusations, and I lie awake at night unable to sleep in the face of all my looming tasks.”

“My worrying doesn’t actually accomplish much... All that it does is take me to place of what author Parker Palmer calls “functional atheism” which is the “belief that ultimate responsibility for everything rests with us.””

“When I am able to turn off or turn down my worries about my life and future, I am able to live in the present today, centered and thankful for the gift that this day is.”

I am grateful the Alissa’s stewardship. I am grateful for the stewardship of both the Episcopal Church and All Saints’. Will I be able to effectively share my time, talent, and treasure? Will you? With God’s help, we shall.

Please Make Your Reservations for All Saints' Memorial Garden

At the September meeting of All Saints' Vestry, the Vestry approved the plan for a Memorial Garden for those members who wish to have their cremated remains buried on the church grounds. A Memorial Garden is NOT a cemetery and thus is not regulated as a cemetery. A Memorial Garden is a Church garden with a set-apart section in which the cremated ashes, in a container or urn, are placed in a 1' by 1' "plot" 31 inches into the ground, and covered by grass. The area for All Saints' Memorial Garden is in the "U-shaped" area, next to the building, between the main entrance/coat room and the library measuring 28' long by 13 feet deep. In other words, just outside the Main Street windows of the church near the dogwood tree. It is a tangible symbol of the communion of saints—most fitting for a Church which commemorates All Saints. A burial charge for the cremains of $500 will cover cost and maintenance of the "plot" and could be waived at the discretion of the Rector.

If you wish to reserve a space in All Saints' Memorial Garden, please complete the form enclosed in this issue of Crossways and return it to the office. Memorial Garden forms may be found in the narthex or on the home page of our website.

Book Club to Meet Wednesday October 23rd at 5:30 PM to Finish Farewell to the East End and Begin *the Faith Club

The October meeting of the Book Club will be Wednesday, October 23rd at 5:30 PM at the Rectory. We'll be finishing up the last book in the Call the Midwife trilogy by Jennifer Worth, Farewell to the East End. If we have time we'll be starting, The Faith Club (by Ranya Idiby, Suzanne Oliver and Pricilla Warner). Here is the publisher blurb:

“A groundbreaking book about Americans searching for faith and mutual respect, The Faith Club weaves the story of three women, their three religions, and their urgent quest to understand one another.

“When an American Muslim woman befriends two other mothers, one Jewish and one Christian, they decide to educate their children about their respective religions. None of them guessed their regular meetings would provide life-changing answers and form bonds that would forever alter their struggles with prejudice, fear, and anger. Personal, powerful, and compelling, The Faith Club forces readers to face the tough questions about their own religions.

“Pioneering, timely, deeply thoughtful, and full of hope, The Faith Club's caring message will resonate with people of all faiths.”

This promises to be a remarkable book. Reading pace in the Book Club is determined by the members. Interested? Pick up a book when they arrive in the Narthex and come on October 23rd!

2013 Field Days Report

Dear Parishioners,

I would like to thank everyone in the parish for your overwhelming support of All Saints' Field Days Concession Project. I particularly want to thank the various members of the Field Days Committees and others that helped so much in setting up the stand, procuring materials and supplies, working at Field Days selling our food and helping keep the stand looking good, and helping with the tear down of the stand on Tuesday. To all of you — my very heartfelt — "Thank You" - We couldn't have done it without you and your help and support.

I would describe our experience with this year's Field Days a success, and the weather was a little better - only 1 day of rain. We again managed to make a profit of approximately $3,200 ($5,500 gross receipts & $2,300 expenses), which is about the same as last year. We do have soda (Coke, Sprite Zero and Mountain Dew) that is available for sale at $3.60 per 12 pack ($3.00 for soda and $.60 for deposit). I will have a final report in the November Crossways after all financial activities are settled.
