St. Mark's Day
April 25, 2012

Dear Friends in Christ,

St. Mark's Day, the feast day celebrating St. Mark of the Gospel of the same name fame, is the day that my "middle" godson, William Christopher Konzen was baptized in St. Paul's Cathedral, Syracuse, NY in 1986. (I can't believe he's 26!) When I was visiting him one May, he gave me a May Day nosegay of dandelions and a creeping wild violet, wrapped in a moistened paper napkin, just as I had done to my mother many, many years ago. Like my mother before me, I thanked him for his beautiful gift. Like my mother, I never told him that dandelions close up after they are picked and that the wild violet is an invasive species because Christopher's May Day nosegay was a gift of love.

Love turned those wilting weeds into beautiful flowers. Love is like that. Weeds are not the only things that love changes into beauty. Jesus' death by crucifixion was transformed by love into the most amazing gift for humanity: the resurrection and eternal life. As John 3:16 so concisely says, "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but have eternal life."

Lent, Easter and Pentecost are all about love. During Lent we hear of how love so often challenges the powers and authorities of the world. In Easter—April 8th-May 26th this year—we hear of how the first followers of Christ were transformed by Jesus' resurrection and went to the ends of the earth proclaiming the Good News of God in Christ. On Pentecost we will celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit who continuously transforms us, the followers of Christ, and the world by love.

So this May, let us come each week to celebrate and share the love of God in Christ which transforms each of us. And let us share that love!

Faithfully,

The Rev. Christine J. Day
Rector

- ✓ Stack cinder blocks
- ✓ Bring buckets up from the kitchen
- ✓ Spray buckets out with the garden hose
- ✓ Carry buckets back to the kitchen
- ✓ Wash chickens in water
- ✓ Scoop coleslaw and baked beans and put them into a Styrofoam container
- ✓ Stuff buns into sandwich bags
- ✓ Add buns and plastic silverware to the Styrofoam containers
- ✓ Carry containers to pit crew
- ✓ Sit in a chair and sell tickets
- ✓ Collect the money for the tickets
- ✓ Sell baked goods
- ✓ Collect the money for the baked goods
- ✓ Set up portable shelters
- ✓ Take down portable shelters
- ✓ Open up fold up chairs
- ✓ Close fold up chairs
- ✓ Help pull fold up chairs from the garage
- ✓ Help put the fold up chairs back (usually both are done by loading onto a pickup truck)

.....well then come and join us and help make our May 14, 2012 barbecue a success. Many hands make it light work. It doesn't need to be an all day commitment. If you can give an hour so someone else can have a half shift that helps. It really does. Thank you for your help in advance.

Rogation Celebration? Come and Join the Celebration on Sunday, May 20th at Noon at the Stoughton Farm in Newark Valley

Mark your calendars now for St. John's, Speedsville's Rogation Celebration at the Stoughton Farm in Newark Valley on May 20th at 12 noon. A dish to pass luncheon will follow the liturgy. The Rev. Richard Schaal states, "We had fun last year. Join us this year. (Buy all you Memorial Day flowers at the farm. Get your bedding plants as well!)"

Originally the Rogation Days were the Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday before Ascension Day. Today it is often celebrated as Rogation Sunday, the Sunday before Ascension Day. Rogation Days originated in Vienne, France in 470 after a series of natural disasters had caused much suffering among the people. Archbishop Mamertus proclaimed a fast and ordered that special litanies and prayers be said as the population processed around their fields, asking God's protection and blessing on the crops that were just beginning to sprout. The Latin word rogare means "to ask", thus these were "rogation" processions. In an agricultural society, closely connected with the soil and highly vulnerable to the uncertainties of nature, this was an idea that took root quickly, and the custom spread around Europe and over to Britain.

While technically they were days of fasting, the Rogation Days developed into a popular festival, celebrating the arrival of spring and serving other purposes, as well. In some parishes, the procession, to "beat the bounds" of the parish, took more than one day and the whole business became an occasion for several days of picnics and revels of all sorts, particularly among those who trooped along at the fringes of the religious aspects of the procession. The poet George Herbert gave the following good reasons to beat the bounds: "1) a blessing of God for the fruits of the field; 2) Justice in the preservation of the bounds; 3) Charitie, in living, walking and neighbourly accompanying one another, with reconciling of differences at that time, if they be any; 4) Mercie, in relieving the poor by a liberal distribution of largess which at that time is or ought be made." ( The above paragraphs are from the Full Homely Divinity website: <http://fullhomelydivinity.org>)

Come and celebrate Rogation Sunday with St. John's Speedsville!

Summer Volunteers Needed for our Saturday Soup and Sandwich Luncheon

Things have been busy during the month of April. First, we bought a dishwasher! The installation will not take place until early summer in order to accommodate our bar-b-cue schedule. This is good news for our program, and I want to thank an anonymous donor who gave a generous gift that facilitated this purchase. Thank you also to David Pierce who did a lot of the leg work to make sure we acquired the appropriate model. We also had a very successful Lenten drive this year. Thanks to the generosity of those who take the Lenten challenge we collected $988. If you still have money to turn in, please do so. The money will be well spent, especially as our average number of guests is now in the 60s. And, lastly, another appeal for volunteers. Starting in early May we will no longer have the assistance of our very loyal cadre of SUNY students. If you can find it in your heart please volunteer at least during the summer. The captains are eager for help and can accommodate any amount of time you could give on a Saturday. The busiest time is at noon during serving and the follow-up clean-up time.

Dollars and Cents: March 2012

All Saints' 2012 budget is a balanced budget! Thanks to our parish making generous pledges! In 2012 a monthly income of $ 14,244 will be needed to balance the expenses. Please try to keep up your pledges. Truly, with "God all things are possible" (Mt. 19:26)

As Crossways goes to press before the end of the month, the financial information below is for the most recent completed month. In this case, it's the month of February 2012 or about 16.6% through the year.

Income	Actual March 2012	Annual Budget 2012
Offering & Pledges	$ 34,707	$ 155,389
Fundraising	$ (19)	$ 7,200
Other Income	$ 1,359	$ 8,342
Faith Income	$ 0	$ 0
Total Income	$ 36,047	$ 170,931
Total Expenses	$ 45,651	$ 170,931
Profit (Loss)*	($9,604)*	$ 0

*In the first quarter of the year there are many expenses that are either paid at the beginning of the year or at the beginning of the quarter (pension, health insurance, other insurance, etc.) that result in a temporary deficit.

In addition, All Saints' utility bills have been significantly higher than last year. Nancy Elwood who works at NYSEG looked into this. She reported that right now there is a cumulative credit in NYSEG Solutions budget of $1674.28. So she suggested that the Treasurer call and remove both the gas and the electric from being budgeted until the fall. Applying the credit should result in no bill for May 2012.

Questions? Ask Treasurer, Barb Freed, or a Warden or a Vestry member.

Stewardship Thought

One day, the father of a very wealthy family took his son on a trip to the country with the express purpose of showing him how poor people live. They spent a couple of days and nights on the farm of what would be considered a very poor family. On their return from their trip, the father asked his son, "How was the trip?"

"It was great, Dad."

"Did you see how poor people live?" the father asked.

"Oh yeah," said the son.

"So, tell me, what did you learn from the trip?" asked the father.

The son answered: "I saw that we have one dog and they had four. We have a pool that reaches to the middle of our garden and they have a creek that has no end. We have imported lanterns in our garden and they have the stars at night. Our patio reaches to the front yard and they have the whole horizon. We have a small piece of land to live on and they have fields that go beyond our sight. We have servants who serve us, but they serve others. We buy our food, but they grow theirs. We have walls around our property to protect us, they have friends to protect them."

The boy's father was speechless.

Book Club to Meet Thursday May 31st at 5:30 at the Rectory to Begin Bonnie Calhoun's *Cooking the Books

When the Book Club meets on Thursday, May 31st, 5:30 PM at the Rectory, it is beginning the first book of local author, Bonnie Calhoun, Cooking the Books. Here's the publisher's blurb on Cooking the Books:

"After her mother dies from a heart attack, Sloane Templeton goes from Cyber Crimes Unit to bookstore owner before she can blink. She also "inherits" a half-batty store manager; a strange bunch of little old people from the neighborhood who meet at the store once a week, but never read books, called the Granny Oakleys Book Club; and Aunt Verline, who fancies herself an Iron Chef when in reality you need a cast iron stomach to partake of her culinary disasters. And with a group like this you should never ask, "What else can go wrong?"

"A lot! Sloane begins to receive cyber threats. While Sloane uses her computer forensic skills to uncover the source of the threats, it is discovered someone is out to kill her. Can her life get more crazy?"

Bonnie S. Calhoun is director of the Christian Fiction Blog Alliance, publisher of Christian Fiction Online magazine, the Northeast Zone Director for the American Christian Fiction Writers (ACFW), and the President of the Christian Authors Network (CAN). She is a Google-certified Top Contributor on the Blogger Help Forum and frequently conducts workshops on blogging and website construction as a faculty member at the Greater Philadelphia Christian Writers Conference and the Colorado Christian Writers Conference. She and her husband, Bob, along with a dog and cat that consider her wait-staff, live in a log home on fifteen acres in the upstate area of Binghamton, New York.

Interested? Pick-up a copy of Cooking the Books when the books arrive in the Narthex ($12.10) and come to the next Book Club on Thursday, May 31st at 5:30 PM at the Rectory.
