

For the Week of September 8, 2019

CHOW Pantry suggestions for this week: Cookies, Crackers, Boxed or Canned Potatoes, Hamburger and Tuna Helper.

Volunteers are needed for Fellowship after the 10:00am services – sign up in the library.

It Takes a Community to Heal will be held Wednesday September 11th at 6:30pm at Christ Church in Binghamton – An overview of the addiction and recovery continuum which will include theories of addiction, the science of addiction, and current addiction trends.

Sunday School will begin on September 15th.

Join the Diocese of Central New York for a free workshop presenting the "Gather-Transform-Send" model as a lens to look at how God is at work in our congregations, how we're partnering with God, and how God is calling us into creativity and renewal. You'll learn how to apply and share this model in your own congregation and ministry.

The workshop will be led by members of our diocesan Congregational Development team who have been trained through the College for Congregational Development. It will be held at Christ Church in Binghamton on Wednesday Sept. 18th. from 6:30 – 8:30pm.

Interfaith Panel on Peace & Acceptance will be held September 22nd at the Central United Methodist Church on Nanticoke Ave, Endicott from 2:00pm – 4:00pm. The featured Speakers are the REV. DR. MICHELLE BOGUE-TROST, RABBI BARBARA GOLDMAN-WARTELL and IMAM ADNAN AHMED

September 21st & 22nd- after the service on Saturday and at coffee hour on Sunday, Deacon Dorothy Pierce will talk on Jail Ministry.

Learning Community Initiative – Will have their 3rd. gathering on Sept. 28th. in Baldwinsville.

CHOW Walk will be held on October 6th at Otsiningo Park. This will be the 37th annual Hunger walk for CHOW. Registration is at 1:00pm and the walk starts at 2:00pm. If you would like to sponsor someone to walk for you see Linda Barkman who will be walking. If you would like to walk, see Linda.

Parking Lot Cleanup: We thank Ken and Nancy Baker, Rick Hrebin, Joy Kasmarcik, Matt Labosky, Don and Debbie Thorpe, and Gary Zurn for cutting the weeds and cleaning up the parking lot for our picnic.

October Crossways articles will be due on September 22nd to Gary Zurn.