The lesser feast of Mary & Martha of Bethany

Dear Friends in Christ,

Saints Mary and Martha of Bethany rate being included the Saint roster in the Episcopal Church, but I would argue that they are worthy of a major feast. All the eleven original disciples plus Matthias (the Judas replacement chosen by lottery) are awarded major or red letter feasts. And for some of them we know very little about them other than they were with Jesus from his Baptism through his Resurrection. But with Mary and Martha of Bethany we know that Jesus often stayed with them and their brother Lazarus, whom Jesus raised. Mary sat at Jesus' feet and had deep discussions with him while Martha prepared and served the meals. It is with Mary and Martha that Jesus says, "I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" Martha replies, "Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one coming into the world." (John 11:25—27) They rate a major feast!

It's tempting to try to classify people as either a "Mary," someone who spends time in prayer and scripture, or a "Martha," one who is always engaged in action and good deeds. The truth of the matter is that all of us are a blend of Mary and Martha. In fact our time spent in scripture, prayer and contemplation fuels our active ministries of seeking and serving Christ in all persons and loving our neighbor as ourselves. Especially during this COVID-19 pandemic we all need this spiritual fuel to cope and flourish. So where can it be found?

It's a trick question: you have all the things you need already. Since the weekend of July 5th All Saints' has been offering two small gatherings of 12 person services of Holy Communion: Saturdays at 5 pm and Sundays at 10:30 am. You must call the Rectory phone ahead of time and reserve your place at least an hour before the service. We don't want to turn anyone away at the door. Masks covering mouth and nose, hand-sanitized hands, and 6 feet of physical distance are required. These two in-person worship opportunities and Evening Prayer are also available by Zoom and on All Saints' Facebook page which can be accessed through our webpage. In addition "Dwelling in the Word," Compline, Book Club, PB&B, the Lunch Bunch are all available on Zoom. If you have no computer, you can use your phone and call into Zoom. Or you can even call Deacon Dorothy Pierce or me and we will phone you shortly before the service so you can listen to it! Plus there are The Book of Common Prayer, 1979 and Forward Day by Day for personal prayer and private devotion. Copies of which can be delivered to you if you call the office.

Faithfully,

The Very Rev. Christine J. Day
Rector

DISINFECTING WIPES NEEDED

All Saints' stockpile of disinfecting wipes has dwindled and very often the stores shelves have been emptied as well. In the meantime, All Saints' has found a spray-on hospital grade disinfecting solution and washable clothes to use to clean. But some disinfecting wipes are needed for in-between cleaning times in the bathrooms, etc. The Rector has occasionally found some wipes available on her shopping trips and has brought them in. Therefore, if you are shopping and you find a container of disinfecting wipes available please pick one up for the church and bring it next time you come. You will be helping All Saints' stay safe for everyone!

THERE WILL BE NO 2020 LIVES OF COMMITMENT EVENT WHICH WAS TO HAVE HONORED ALL SAINTS' IDA TAFT AS WELL AS OTHERS IN PERSON ON SEPTEMBER 22ND OR VIRTUALLY ONLINE

This email was sent on behalf of REV. DR. JOSEPH SELLEPACK, Executive Director

Hello everyone,

Hope you've all been staying safe and healthy. After considerable discussion, we have decided we will not be having our 2020 Lives of Commitment event in person on September 22nd or virtually online. We have rescheduled the breakfast with DoubleTree to Thursday April 29, 2021, at which time we can give our 2020 honorees appropriate recognition.

The COVID-19 crisis has been a challenge for us all. Despite having to put several services on hold, Faith in Action Volunteers has remained a resource for the 300+ seniors that are registered with us. We continue to be a source of contact and companionship by reaching out to our housebound clients on a regular basis. We also offer an Online Grocery Ordering & Delivery service for any senior that needs groceries. Staff places grocery orders online and volunteers provide contactless pick-up and delivery.

We look forward to the day we can resume normal operations. Until then, we will continue to be guided by our mission to help “...adults over 60 maintain quality of life and independence.”

Thank you,

STEWARDSHIP ACTIVITIES

Editor's note: It is important in times like this that we remember the expenses for the church continue even though there are no services within the building. Please mail your pledges to the office. Thank you.

I have been thinking quite a lot about Time and Talent as Stewardship lately. I am reminded how much was given by five of our recently deceased parishioners.

First Bob Steber comes to mind as he gave so much of his time to All Saints' in so many ways. Bob was always helping with ushering, fundraising, vestry and other activities such as Soup and Sandwich. There were many times when Debbie would call Bob at the last minute because she was short of volunteers. Unless Bob had scheduled something else, he came faithfully.

Speaking of Soup and Sandwich, David Pierce, Doris Brink, Paul Donnelly and Marilyn Doersam were on teams from the very beginning of the program . All of them participated from then until they no longer could do so. David was the captain of the 2nd week team and was instrumental in the modernization of the kitchen. Paul was Paul, always dependable, helping in every way possible. All of this reminds me of how many All Saints' parishioners do so much for the church.

I remember the results of the Stewardship Survey last year which makes me marvel at the amount of time given to make the church run. God Bless all of you who help in so many ways. My apologies to the families of any others who have passed away whom I have neglected to mention for their faithful participation in the life of the Parish.

Don Thorpe
Stewardship Chair

SOUP AND SANDWICH continues on in it's take out format. We prepare for 80-90. If only there could be an RSVP as we have had as few as 55 and as many as 100. Everyone gets two sandwiches, soup, a salad, fruit, chips, and a dessert. Don is getting good at making banana bread with left over bananas. Thanks go out to other parishoners who also have made desserts. With the sale of Maines, CHOW has dramatically less products for us to use on a weekly basis meaning we buy more. In addition to those who come we deliver food to several shutins. However, our finances remain ok thanks to some legacy money and generous gifts from parishoners.

Volunteers are at a premium, as always. Thanks go to the "regulars": Linda Barkman, Mother Chris, Joy Kasmarcik, and Rick Fiacco who is a, now loyal, second week cook, the Coles, Colleen Labosky, the Pierces, and some dedicated non-parishoners. It takes about 8-10 people to pull a Saturday off. Please consider volunteering or asking any friends you might have to give it a try. I have found that friends I ask have been willing to take a try.

There have been stresses such as an overflowing sump pit, flooding in the hallways, and no elevator for two weeks, but we perservere. God is good and we continue to feed his flock.

We thank everyone who was able to assist at the BBQ. We had a profit of $1349.

THE APOSTLES

ANDREW

Andrew was the brother of Peter, and a son of Jonas. He lived in Bethsaida and Capernaum and was a fisherman before Jesus called him. Originally, he was a disciple of John the Baptist (Mark 1:16-18). Andrew brought his brother, Peter, to Jesus (John 1:40). He is the first to have the title of Home and Foreign Missionary. He is claimed by three countries as their Patron Saint-Russia, Scotland and Greece. Many scholars say that he preached in Scythia, Greece and Asia Minor.

Andrew introduced others to Jesus. Although circumstances placed him in a position where it would have been easy for him to become jealous and resentful, he was optimistic and well content in second place. His main purpose in life was to bring others to the master.

According to tradition, it was in Achaia, Greece, in the town of Patra that Andrew died a martyr. When Governor Aepeas' wife was healed and converted to the Christian faith, and shortly after that the Governor's brother became a Christian. Aepeas was enraged. He arrested Andrew and condemned him to die on the cross. Andrew, feeling unworthy to be crucified on the same-shaped cross as his Master, begged that his be different. So, he was crucified on an X-shaped cross, which is still called Saint Andrew's cross and which is one of his apostolic symbols. A symbol of two crossed fish has also been applied to Andrew, because he was formerly a fisherman.

The above was taken from BibleInfo.com and used with permission.

From your Editor: I will be doing one apostle each month. Let me know if there is a specific apostle whom you would like next.

BOOK CLUB TO MEET DIGITALLY BY ZOOM ON AUGUST 20th at 5:30PM FINISHING THE NICKEL BOYS... STARTING JUST MERCY

Since Crossways will go to press before the July Book Club meeting, saying what the Book Club will be reading is always a challenge. As the Book Club's pace is set by members and that it is summertime, the Book Club in July will be finishing up reading Colson Whitehead's The Nickel Boys and moving on to discuss, Just Mercy: A Story of Justice and Redemption by Bryan Stevenson.

Here are the publishers' blurb for Just Mercy:

Just Mercy: A Story of Justice and Redemption (e-format $12.99, paperback $17.99 -7.88)

"A powerful true story about the potential for mercy to redeem us, and a clarion call to fix our broken system of justice—from one of the most brilliant and influential lawyers of our time. Bryan Stevenson was a young lawyer when he founded the Equal Justice Initiative, a legal practice dedicated to defending those most desperate and in need: the poor, the wrongly condemned, and women and children trapped in the farthest reaches of our criminal justice system. One of his first cases was that of Walter McMillian, a young man who was sentenced to die for a notorious murder he insisted he didn't commit. The case drew Bryan into a tangle of conspiracy, political machination, and legal brinksmanship—and transformed his understanding of mercy and justice forever.

"Just Mercy is at once an unforgettable account of an idealistic, gifted young lawyer's coming of age, a moving window into the lives of those he has defended, and an inspiring argument for compassion in the pursuit of true justice.

Episcopal Church Executive Council: opening remarks from Presiding Bishop Michael Curry - on July 22, 2020 (virtual)

“You've got the COVID-19 virus, that's a fact. You've got schools trying to figure out, do we open, do we not? Everybody is trying to figure out what is the right thing to do. So, you've got that anxiety. You've got the politics of a face mask, which anyway... You've got that going on. You've got, how do we function in society in this context? And then you've got the reality of racism and white supremacy and re-imagining police. You've got all that going on. It's as though you've already got a fire and then you just take the gasoline of a presidential election and throw it on top of the fire. That's what the fall is going to look like. And we haven't even thought about the fact that we're about to enter into hurricane season.

And so, I take seriously the power of prayer, and I know you do too. And I think we've got to ramp up our prayers during this season in particular, not just here in the United States, but around the world. The tensions and the divisions are real and they're deep. But we need not fall victim to them. And so we will need to be praying and we'll need to be speaking to make a Christian voice for the way of love and justice and compassion and human decency and adult behavior as values and norms by which we live as human beings, whether we are Christian or Republican or Democrat or any religion.”

The following prayer is from the Evening Prayer service in the Book of Common Prayer:

Keep watch, dear Lord, with those who work, or watch, or weep this night, and give your angels charge over those who sleep. Tend the sick, Lord Christ, give rest to the weary, bless the dying, soothe the suffering, pity the afflicted, shield the joyous: and all for your love's sake. Amen.

The Final Word

Worry: Philippians 4:6 – “Don’t worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and thank him for all he has done”

To worry is human. We worry about job security. We worry about unexpected expenses. We worry when our children ride their bikes around the block for the first time. Worry is a normal and natural part of life. But too much worry can distract and paralyze—and can even lead to a sinful denial of God’s presence and grace in our lives. Scripture teaches that we find rest from inappropriate worry when we admit we can’t control the future and entrust ourselves—and our loved ones—to the God who does. NLT-GEZ

The calendar on the following page is based on church activities as usual. Any meeting at church will not be held unless the COVID-19 restrictions are lifted by our Bishop. Many meetings are via ZOOM or Facebook Live see above for information.
