Lesser Feast of St. Polycarp, Bishop & Martyr of Smyrna, 156

Dear Friends in Christ,

The first time I heard of St. Polycarp, I thought that perhaps Father George Dirghalli had had too much communion wine—I mean the word to my ears sounded like St. Many Fish. Then I looked up St. Polycarp in Lesser Feasts and Fasts, and I realized that the name in Greek meant Many Fruits—as in fruits of Spirit. I was sold on St. Polycarp and named my second Silky Terrier after the saint. Fast forward to seminary where, much to puppy Polycarp's chagrin, St. Polycarp's feast day was cut short before Evensong by the Vigil for St. Matthias—who was chosen by lottery to replace Judas! Even though St. Polycarp's martyrdom was the first recorded martyrdom after St. Stephen, and even though St. Polycarp's faithful proclamation of Christ—"Eighty-six years I have served Christ...How can I deny him now"—St. Polycarp nevertheless still has a shorten feast day.

That's life. There are things out of our human control. In fact, many things are out of our control. And that's okay because no matter what God is with us as God was with St. Polycarp.

Life has not been the same since mid-March 2020—AKA Lent 3-year A. Through it all God has been with us. True it's been different seeing everyone's face on ZOOM services and not the back of their heads as one would in person. But it has worked more on computers, laptops, phones and even land lines. And we've been able to "see" old friends who no longer live in the area but who occasionally join us online. Some practices such as "Dwelling in the Word" have been strengthened by the online connection. Some things like hearing All Saints' choir or singing with the choir are sorely missed. All out of our control but God is with us.

Beginning the weekend of Lent 2, February 27/28, All Saints' will be holding in-person services of Holy Communion on Saturdays at 5 pm and Sundays at 10:30am as long as the rate of infection remains low. Both services will also be live streamed on ZOOM and Facebook Live. The Lenten Program, "Love is the Way: Holding onto Hope in Troubling Times" continues on Sundays at 6:30pm on ZOOM. The Rev. Dcn Dorothy Pierce and Andy Pierce will lead Stations of the Cross on Fridays at 4:30pm on ZOOM during Lent.

Faithfully yours,

The Very Rev. Christine J. Day

Rector

NEWS FROM THE CNY DIOCESAN OFFICE

Dear clergy and wardens:

After meeting last night with the clergy of the Diocese, Bishop Duncan-Probe has approved new COVID-19 response guidelines that allow for indoor in-person worship to resume on February 28, 2020 (the Second Sunday in Lent). COVID-19 positivity rates have decreased following the holiday surge, and for some communities the option to offer indoor in-person worship supports emotional and spiritual health. Decisions about whether to resume in-person gatherings within the scope of these updated guidelines should be made collaboratively by parish leaders. Take your time! There is no pressure or expectation on any parish to resume in-person gatherings; in-person gatherings may not be appropriate for every congregation.

You can download the updated guidelines here: <https://cnyepiscopal.org/download/covid-guidelines/>

Highlights of the updated guidelines (effective February 28, 2021) include:

- Indoor and outdoor in-person gatherings for worship and other purposes are permitted, limited to 33% of space capacity or 50 individuals, whichever is fewer. Online/hybrid worship is strongly encouraged.
- Decisions about whether to resume in-person gatherings within the scope of these guidelines should be made collaboratively by clergy and vestry. In-person gatherings may not be appropriate for every congregation.
- In-person gatherings are possible because COVID-19 positivity rates have decreased across the Diocese. Should positivity rates increase again, suspension of in-person gatherings may resume.
- Individuals who have received the COVID-19 vaccination must follow all masking, hygiene, and physical distancing protocols when attending church-sponsored in-person gatherings.

Thank you for your continuing faithful ministry and service as we enter the season of Lent together.

Faithfully,

Meredith Sanderson
Diocesan Office

DWELLING IN THE WORD CONTINUES SUNDAYS AT 9:00 AM VIA ZOOM

"Dwelling in the Word," Bible Study, will continue Sundays at 9:00am via "Zoom." "Dwelling in the Word" is a way of spiritually listening to the text as one-way God speaks to us, with a willingness to be shaped by what God might want to say through the Scripture.

During Lent "Dwelling in the Word" continues to dwell on a passage from Mark's Passion Gospel: Mark 15:15-49. This passage is part of the Marcan Passion that will be used on Palm Sunday, March 28th. Each week we will dwell with a different translation.

Sound interesting? Get a head start on Palm Sunday? Then to connect to "Dwelling in the Word" go to the Zoom site (<https://zoom.us>); then "join a meeting" using the following Meeting ID: 410 030 305 or use this url and Join Zoom meeting <https://zoom.us/j/410030305>

ALL SAINTS’ LENTEN PROGRAM: “LOVE IS THE WAY: HOLDING ON TO HOPE IN TROUBLING TIMES” CONTINUING ON SUNDAYS IN LENT at 6:30PM BY ZOOM

First it was a book for Book Club, now Bishop Michael Curry’s book, Love is the Way: Holding on to Hope in Troubling Times has become a 6-week Lenten program that uses Love is the Way as a basis for discussing and for developing a personal Rule of Life. We will meet by ZOOM on Sundays at 6:30pm. Each session will include an opening devotion; examination of scriptural background; development of a Rule of Life; discussion and a brief closing worship. Here’s a sample of the discussion questions: What is love? How do I find God’s love? Can love really change the world?

Copies of Love is the Way can be purchased in hard cover or e-format. Here’s the reading and scripture schedule for March:

March 7th at 6:30pm	Chapters 5-6; and p. 252 Step 2	Exodus 20:2-3; 1 Corinthians 3:6. 1 Corinthians 13:12

LENTEN SOUP BOX OFFERINGS

Our Lenten special offering supports our Saturday Soup and Sandwich Lunch program. We are now strictly take-out. The number of people we serve has climbed from 60 in March to about 80 each week. We serve walkers and bus people at the 3rd Street door and drive through is done at the back door. With the pandemic our lunches have become even more necessary to many of our fellow community members.

With totally take-out a new expense has been added to costs. Everything must be served in disposables. My hope is that through our Lenten parish offering we can raise enough money to continue our mission of feeding people as Jesus calls us to do.

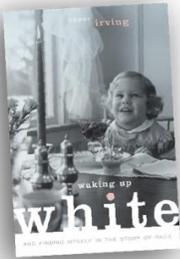

This is how it works. Many people give something up during Lent such as candy, between meal snacks or their daily lottery ticket for example. The money each parishioner saves with their sacrifice is then labeled “Soup and Sandwich” and given with the Easter offering. Checks work the best. Questions? Speak to Debbie Thorpe.

ALL-DIOCESE WORSHIP SERVICE WITH RENEWAL OF VOWS
SUNDAY, MARCH 14th AT 10:00AM

On Sunday, March 14th at 10:00 a.m., Bishop DeDe Duncan-Probe will lead an online worship service for the entire Diocese. One year from the initial impact of the COVID-19 crisis, we will gather as one body to renew our baptismal and ordination vows and affirm our common call to ministry. This diocesan service gives parish clergy and worship leaders an opportunity to take a Sunday Sabbath during the COVID-19 crisis.

Join via Zoom on the Diocesan website (<https://cnyepiscopal.org/event/renewal-vows-2021/>) or Facebook live (facebook.com/cnyepiscopal/live).

DIOCESAN LENTEN BOOK CLUB:
DEBBIE IRVING'S WAKING UP WHITE
WEDNESDAY
MARCH 24th
6:30 – 8:00PM
ON ZOOM

The Diocese of Central New York's Lenten book selection is Debby Irving's *Waking Up White: And Finding Myself in the Story of Race*. On Wednesday, March 24th, 6:30-8:00 pm, you're invited to join Bishop Duncan-Probe and members of the diocesan Antiracism team for an online, interactive book discussion. There will be time for conversation in small groups. Enjoy a dessert or an evening snack while we talk!

The discussion will take place on Zoom. Please register online on the Diocesan website (<https://cnyepiscopal.org/event/lenten-book-discussion/>) to receive an email with your Zoom link!

Here's the publisher's blurb:

"For twenty-five years, Debby Irving sensed inexplicable racial tensions in her personal and professional relationships. As a colleague and neighbor, she worried about offending people she dearly wanted to befriend. As an arts administrator, she didn't understand why her diversity efforts lacked traction. As a teacher, she found her best efforts to reach out to students and families of color left her wondering what she was missing. Then, in 2009, one "aha!" moment launched an adventure of discovery and insight that drastically shifted her worldview."

BOOK CLUB TO MEET WEDNESDAY,
MARCH 31st at 5:30PM BY ZOOM:
CONTINUING TO READ
ISABEL WILKERSON'S
*CASTE: THE ORIGINS OF OUR DISCONTENT

The Book Club has decided to read Isabel Wilkerson's Caste: The Origins of Our Discontent. Caste is an Oprah's Book Club selection, a #1 New York Times best seller and was named #1 Non-Fiction Book of the Year by Time magazine. Book Club meets monthly on the last Wednesday of the month and the pace of the reading is set by the members. Book Club will meet on Wednesday, March 31st at 5:30pm by ZOOM.

Here's the publisher's blurb:

“The Pulitzer Prize–winning, bestselling author of The Warmth of Other Suns examines the unspoken caste system that has shaped America and shows how our lives today are still defined by a hierarchy of human divisions.

“In this brilliant book, Isabel Wilkerson gives us a masterful portrait of an unseen phenomenon in America as she explores, through an immersive, deeply researched narrative and stories about real people, how America today and throughout its history has been shaped by a hidden caste system, a rigid hierarchy of human rankings.

“Beyond race, class, or other factors, there is a powerful caste system that influences people’s lives and behavior and the nation’s fate. Linking the caste systems of America, India, and Nazi Germany, Wilkerson explores eight pillars that underlie caste systems across civilizations, including divine will, bloodlines, stigma, and more. Using riveting stories about people—including Martin Luther King, Jr., baseball’s Satchel Paige, a single father and his toddler son, Wilkerson herself, and many others—she shows the ways that the insidious undertow of caste is experienced every day. She documents how the Nazis studied the racial systems in America to plan their out-cast of the Jews; she discusses why the cruel logic of caste requires that there be a bottom rung for those in the middle to measure themselves against; she writes about the surprising health costs of caste, in depression and life expectancy, and the effects of this hierarchy on our culture and politics. Finally, she points forward to ways America can move beyond the artificial and destructive separations of human divisions, toward hope in our common humanity.

“Beautifully written, original, and revealing, Caste: The Origins of Our Discontents is an eye-opening story of people and history, and a reexamination of what lies under the surface of ordinary lives and of American life today.”

A little girl asked her mother, "Mom, how were people created?"

Her Mom replied: "First God made man and woman. Then they had kids. Then their kids grew up and had their own kids. Then their kids grew up and had their own kids. In this way, the numbers of people increased."

Later that day, the little girl went up to her father, and asked: "Dad, how were people created?" The father replied: "First, God made monkeys. Then the monkeys evolved into people."

At the dinner table that night, with both Mom and Dad present, the little girl turned to her Mom and said: "Mom, you lied. Dad said people come from monkeys."

"No, dear," Mom replied. "Dad told you about the monkeys in his family. I told you about the people in my family."

Nancy was Catholic, but her fiance, Chris, was not. Since they were planning to be married in a Catholic Church, Chris made sure he was listening carefully throughout the prenuptial sessions with the priest.

At one point, the priest turned to Chris and told him, "Since you are not Catholic, we shall have a ceremony without Eucharist."

Afterwards, Chris was notably upset, so Nancy asked him what was wrong.

"I don't understand," Chris said. "How can we have the ceremony without me?"

MARCH 14

The following prayer is from the Evening Prayer service in the Book of Common Prayer:

Keep watch, dear Lord, with those who work, or watch, or weep this night, and give your angels charge over those who sleep. Tend the sick, Lord Christ, give rest to the weary, bless the dying, sooth the suffering, pity the afflicted, shield the joyous: and all for your love's sake. Amen.

The Final Word

Decisions: Psalm 25:4 – “Show me the path where I should walk, O Lord; point out the right road for me to follow.....”

The psalmist expressed his desire for guidance. How do we receive Gods guidance? We must desire to be guided by God, and we must ask for direction. We need to regularly look for God’s direction in his Word, the Bible. By reading it and constantly learning from it, we will gain the wisdom to perceive God’s direction for our lives.
